

MEET DAVID HARRIS

Serving God is a priceless moment for me.

Hi, I'm David J Harris, Band Director at The Potter's House of Fort Worth. It is my esteemed privilege and honor to lead an extremely gifted group of musicians that help facilitate our Praise and Worship experience each and every week.

Whether the moment is requiring a cry, shout, shuffle, or full out dance, I want to always ensure our sound is in tune with what The Holy Spirit allows.

I love working and being a part of TPHFW because I know it is where God has allowed my family to grow, prosper, and remained covered under my Pastor, Patrick E. Winfield. In the "world" of church musicians, it can sometimes be difficult to have a genuine relationship with the Pastor, but that was never the case in the better part of the last decade that I've served here. It is a priceless component of being a part of the body.

You may or may not know that I am a HUGE Dallas/Fort Worth area sports fan. This sometimes playfully plays out in service as our Pastor and Executive Pastor are not. We take "sports jabs" at each other often as a result. We need a little more praye
