

MEET BRITTANY JONES

Jesus name heals all.
His glory works.

Hi, I'm Brittany Jones, Worship Leader

I hold the responsibility of leading worship, songwriting, directing the choir, teaching parts, and conducting rehearsals.

Being a member at TPHFW is a joy.

I've grown spiritually, musically, and professionally. My passion for studying God's Word and being a conduit who leads God's people in worship has deepened over the past 3 years.

I'm the middle child of 3, but most people think I'm the oldest.
